"SENIOR ACTION in a GAY ENVIRONMENT"

JUNE 2009

SOCIAL NOTES

~ by Carl M. Galli ~

We had a joyous time at the Spring Time Brunch at "Tropics" Restaurant. Attended by over 50 guests, this was our most successful Tropics' brunch ever. Kudos to Joyce Schweitzer, who took charge, along with Barbara Sussman, who assisted at registration. Thanks, too, to Nate and his superb staff - especially Craig, who helped coordinate. The food was exceptional - and there was, indeed, something for everyone!

A few weeks afterwards, twenty of us were treated to the theatrical event of the year, when we attended the final performance of the Tony Award-Winning "Jersey Boys" at the Broward Center. The air was electric as the audience waited for the show to begin - and we were never let down. The dialogue, the singing, the dancing were all fabulous - and that was just from our members! Nancy, Sal & Joe, Paul C., Rex and the lovely Shane, Susan G., Jack H., Willis, Richard S., "Spirit of SAGE" Award Recipient Ed Kelly, "Reba" & Jerry L., Bob M., John Gearrity, Kenny G. & John Harris and Les;

George L, and yours truly were on hand to cheer this greatest of American jukebox musicals. Unlike some other groups, SAGE always tries to give you the most for your money. And, although these tickets were a bit pricey, we did not upcharge at all. And our seats were great! Let's hope this show returns sooner than later so you all have a chance to enjoy it!

This month, Sunday, June 21st (Father's Day), we are going to be "Celebrating Life Together" with the "Ft. Lauderdale Gay Men's Chorus" under the direction of Todd

Wiley, at the Sunshine Cathedral/MCC. Thanks to Bradley Bush and Jack Cole, SAGE once again has 21 great seats in Section B, rows 10 through 12. Unfortunately, as I write this, we have only three seats left. And it sure looks like it will be sold-out. If we do sell-out of tickets, we will not cash your check; we will call you to advise you.

Next month, Sunday, July 12th, we will be going to a nice Italian dinner at "Lorenzo's Trattoria". This restaurant is located directly on Cypress Creek Rd., in a stand-alone building, in front of Publix and Big Lots, in the Cypress Creek Plaza. (We have included a map with the flyer.) SAGE will be in the private back-room which accommodates approximately 40. So please get your reservations in ASAP. There will be a vegetarian dish (with eggplant), a choice of three chicken entrees, and a shrimp dish.

We are keeping Members' pricing at a minimum: $17 p/p. However, in keeping with the Board's recent decision, all NON-Member prices are set at $5 more than the Members' - so NON-Members (or Members who show up without first registering by the close-out date) will pay $22. Still reasonable for a three-course meal with beverage and gratuity.

But you know what? If you're not a member, and you think you'll be coming to at least a couple of these events or activities throughout the year, it's worth it in dollars-and-cents to become a member.

Enjoy

MEN'S WEDNESDAY DROP-IN
 ~ by Ron Catena ~

What a busy month at the Drop-In. Our beloved moderator, Dr. Norm Peters, and his witty partner, Bill Woodward, were off sailing to Europe with friends, a well deserved vacation!! Filling in for Norm as guest facilitators were Dick Schwarz, Allen Sandler, and Jim Anderson. Thanks guys! You all did a great job.

Speaking of Jim Anderson, Jim is an antique car collector and keeps us informed as to where we can find the upcoming car shows in our area. Jim recently participated in the Miami Beach Pride Parade, driving one of his Vintage Cadillacs. Jim's passenger was one of the local elected officials. Jim tells us it was a fun time; lots of eye candy along the parade route.

It was fun to see so many Drop-In regulars at the SAGE monthly luncheon enjoying the gourmet food, good conversation, and excellent guest speaker. Among those in attendance were Joel Glass, Joe Leonard, Ed Kelly, Rex Coston, Fred Vega, Ron Seidle, and Joe Rose. The luncheon was sponsored by The Dolphin Democrats. Thanks to the Dolphins for their generosity.

Drop-In members on the move: John Irish and Bob Kaminsky, sailing to South America; John Chandler, visiting family in New York; Dr. David Goldberg, off to Warsaw, Poland and then driving to Belarus to visit the concentration camp that his late wife escaped from as a young girl during the second world war. What an adventure! David also recently gave a piano recital in Memphis and accompanied his nephew, Dr. Carl Ratner, an accomplished baritone, in a group of Schubert songs.

I hear that Julio Ajon was seen planting trees in the front yard of his Oakland Park home. Greg Hernandez showed the Drop-In group his latest work of stained glass art. Lovely!

The Drop-In continues to attract new guys. Longtime members attend faithfully each week to participate in the fun conversation, and I might add very informative information.

Support SAGE activities. You'll meet some terrific people and have lots of fun. SAGE is the premier senior GLBT organization in South Florida. Invite a friend to join! Keep your membership current so that we can continue all of our programs. The Drop-In meets every Wednesday from 1 to 3 PM at the GLCC on Andrews Ave. This is a SAGE sponsored activity. ■

We'd like to think we are not merely fair weather friends, but people who really care about our SAGE family. If you know of any SAGE member who would appreciate a friendly call, is sick, in the hospital, recently lost a loved one, or just needs a note of cheer, please contact, for women, either Caroline Leto at 954/925-6288, Jean Arthurton at 561/381-3103; or for men, Leo Glickstein at 954/427-6877. This is a SAGE sponsored activity. ■

SAGE MEMBERS HELPING SAGE MEMBERS

Do you need a ride to a doctor's appointment, medical procedure, such as a colonoscopy, or just for simple food shopping? We don't know what you need for us to help unless you tell us. If you need a ride to somewhere, please call the office at 954-720-0833. We will attempt to find someone in your neighborhood who can help you. We don't promise a 100% success rate, but we will do whatever we can to get you to your destination. Don't be shy. Let's hear from you. ■

SHARING SAGE WITH OTHERS

Reconnecting with old friends and meeting new acquaintances is a great part of the SAGE tradition. We invite you to share this tradition by inviting someone new to SAGE to one of our many SAGE sponsored events. Share the camaraderie and support found among SAGE members with others.

When you invite someone new to any of our SAGE sponsored events and that friend joins SAGE, he or she will become a SAGE of South Florida member for the reduced fee of $25.00 for their first year of membership.

Bring a friend along with you the next time you attend or participate in a SAGE sponsored event. Share the tradition. ■

THE

Our Monday, June 15th feature is one of the most honored films of 2008: "Milk". Openly-gay independent filmmaker, Gus van Sant, finally had a major commercial and mainstream success with this multiple Oscar-winning movie. As directed by van Sant, and with an Oscar-winning screenplay by out Dustin Lance Black, this biopic takes us on a journey through the last years of Harvey Milk, the "father of the modern gay rights movement" - and the first openly gay major elected official in the U.S. In theaters just 6 months ago, "Milk" is an ideal film for SAGE to honor this Father's Day month.

Absolutely riveting, Sean Penn, as Harvey Milk, won his second Oscar for what may be the best performance of his career. Warts and all, he makes "Milk" come alive as a living, loving human being. The film is entertaining and illuminating as few recent adult movies have been. And from its opening to its tragic ending, "Milk" will hold you in its grasp and not let go.

With wonderful supporting actors (Josh Brolin - himself an Oscar nominee as Dan White; James Franco - as Milk's first "lover", hippie Scott Smith; Emile Hirsch - as Cleve Jones - who went on to found the AIDS Quilt organization; and Diego Luna - as tragic boyfriend Jack Lira) this movie shows the full immersion in their characters that brilliant actors, under brilliant direction, can bring to their roles.

From TLAVideo: "Our favorite film of 2008, Gus Van Sant's best effort to date... With superb performances, set design that appears to reconstruct Castro St. in the '70s, and a score by the brilliant Danny Elfman, Gus Van Sant has created an essential film... Not stinting on the gay romance, intimate scenes and kissing, "Milk" is the story of a legendary gay hero told in legendary style."

Winner of thirty-four international critics awards, and nominated for forty-four more, "Milk" is one of the most important films of this young century.

Rated R for content and brief nudity, "Milk" screens at 4PM on Monday, June 22nd at the GLCC. It runs 128 minutes. Followed by dinner. This is a SAGE sponsored activity. ■

We continue to meet at The Ark Restaurant, located at 6255 Stirling Road. Their phone number is 954-584-3057, if you need to call for directions.

If you have not attended any of our "get togethers," give us a try. You will meet a great group of women, who enjoy just being with each other and eating a wonderful lunch from the best buffet in the area. We love to laugh, learn new secrets, and keep up with what is going on in the community.

We have also added a couple of new events to the program:

1: To make sure you stay ready for the summer fun, we started a special exercise program, going up and down stairs, around the salad table and even a large buffet. This is repeated as often as you want and $16 covers the complete workout.

2: If you come for lunch and choose to keep coming back for a good time, you can join SAGE and enjoy all our other events. Memberships entered into at a SAGE event are offered at a discounted rate.

We hope to see you on the second Wednesday of each month at 12 noon. Call Nancy at 954-741-1540 to reserve your place at the table. This is a SAGE sponsored activity. ■

Extend Your Life By Finding Meaning

Recent studies show that a common trait among centenarians is having a sense of purpose. A 2005 study that followed middle-aged Hungarians found that those who felt their lives had meaning had significantly lower rates of cancer and heart disease. Another study, the Blue Zones project, found that many of the world's most long-lived people share "having a reason to get out of bed." There may be no "magic bullet" to provide meaning, but there are paths that can increase your chances, according to AARP:

Keep Working

Consider staying in your job as long as you can, as a job may be the easiest way to feel your life has purpose, says National Institute on Aging Director Robert N. Butler, MD. Accomplishment, and income, can provide a sense of purpose, he said. Other studies have shown that people who continue to work have a lower mortality rate than those who retire early.

Take Stock of Yourself

Richard Leider, life coach and author, suggests making a list of your gifts, values, and passions -- then identifying your top quality in each category. This can help you understand your "calling," he says. Deepak Chopra suggests a set of questions to achieve clarity and insight, such as: How do I feel when I have a peak experience? What are my unique skills? Who are my heroes? If I had all the money and time in the world, how would I use my talents to serve humanity? Another approach is to journal -- some suggest 30 minutes of journaling each day. Write about crucial events in your life and how they made you feel.

Explore Spirituality

The correlation between faith and health has been analyzed in more than 2,200 studies over the past five years. Some suggest that believing in a higher power can boost more than just the spirit. Some studies show that attendance in religious services is related to less risky behaviors, less depression, less stress, and longer life. The sense that a higher power has a purpose for humanity may lead to people of faith feeling that each of us has a role in the divine plan.

Find Your Flow

Former University of Chicago Psychology Department Chair Mihaly Csikszentmihalyi believes we find fulfillment in activities that develop a skill, challenge us, and provide ongoing feedback. He calls this "flow." Dr. Csikszentmihalyi says that getting to the top is not the real goal of mountain climbers. What makes mountain climbing purposeful is the challenge with each step -- focusing attention, seeing what you are doing right and wrong with each step. He thinks a good way to find flow is to think about trying something you've always wanted to do but thought you couldn't -- something you really care about. Purposeful activity should engage your abilities and require effort.

Volunteer

Lending a hand can make you feel good about yourself and your life. Research shows that older people who give back have better physical and mental health and lower mortality risk. One study published in the Journal of Urban Health found that volunteers ages 60 through 86 outscored their non-volunteering counterparts in both physical and cognitive ability. Butler says the key is to volunteer in ways that seem meaningful to you.

BOOK BUNCH NEWS:
~ by Wayne Draper ~

The SAGE Book Bunch will meet on Saturday, June 13th at 2 p.m. at Borders on East Sunrise Blvd.

Leave Myself Behind by Bart Yates.

Noah York is a closeted gay teenager with a foul mouth, and a critical disposition. After his father dies, Noah's mother, a temperamental poet, takes a teaching job in a small New Hampshire town, far from Chicago and the only world Noah has known. While Noah gets along reasonably with his mother, the crumbling house they try to renovate quickly reveals dark secrets, via dusty Mason jars they discover interred between walls. Fortunately, Noah finds an unexpected ally in J.D., a teenager down the street who has family troubles of his own. This is a SAGE sponsored activity. ■

SAGE MISSION STATEMENT

SAGE of South Florida is a non-profit organization for Senior Action in a Gay Environment to enrich the lives of the GLBT senior community through membership inclusive of age, gender, race, nationality and religion. We believe this can be accomplished by sponsoring social alternatives to provide personal interaction, offering educational opportunities to deal with the special needs of aging, and promoting contact with the isolated and homebound persons of our community. SAGE is also an advocate for the concerns and needs of the senior GLBT community at large, providing referral information of community resources and promoting inter-generational communication in the GLBT community.

SAGE was founded in 1994 as a Florida "not for profit" Corporation. (Federal Tax-Exempt status of 501(c)3 allowing tax-deductible donations). ■
