Gay and Grey Rey Torres

Growing old in America can be difficult, we live in a society that puts such a tremendous value on youth and beauty, but growing old and gay in America can seem like an unrelenting journey into isolationism, bigotry, and indifference. Advocacy groups say the estimated 2.5 million gay seniors in America are twice as likely to live alone, four times less likely to have adult children to help them, and are far more fearful of discrimination from health care workers. Overlooked by society at large, and at times it seems “invisible” to the younger gays, gay seniors face obstacles and hardships that their heterosexual counterparts do not and never will.

With old age comes the passage of time and major milestones in a senior life; aging is too often about isolation. Friends, families and partners die, and along with them so do their social networks and community connections. Once viable, vibrant gay men, old age sneaks up on them in the gay society like a bad rumor; it's whispered and discussed in hushed tones, but no one really wants to “see it.” When you throw in the mix, the scourges of homophobia and the AIDS epidemic, the situation for senior gays may seem insurmountable.

Seniors in the gay community have seen their community hit with the total devastation of HIV and the shocking numbers of gay men that died in the early onslaught of the epidemic. They have seen the rise and rise of gay activism, and in many areas they have been at the very forefront of these activities, provoking and shocking the general populous into recognizing the rights and dilemmas that members of the LGBT community face. It seems unfair that for so many in their golden years, the programs and reforms that they championed now seem to escape them when they most need them.

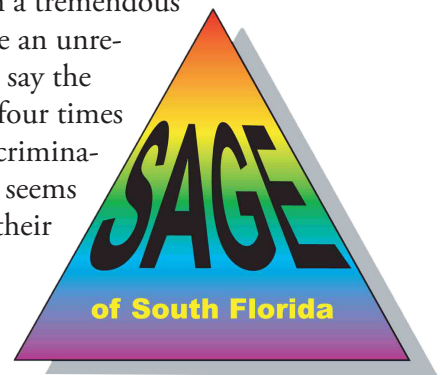

Society can still be a lonely place for the gay elderly, many of which have not told family and friends about their sexual preferences. Many of these people grew up before Stonewall, when gay people were harassed and prosecuted as criminals. Even though it is better now, that atmosphere still lingers. More people in the LGBT community live alone than in the straight community because many of them never married and have no children. Compound these inequities with the hardship elderly citizens face in a economic downturn (like the one we are in right now), and life can be pretty daunting. Seniors are experiencing the U.S. recession acutely. Rapidly rising living and housing costs, along with projected cuts in government assistance, mean even less of their scant social security and pension dollars to take care of health needs.

Discrimination in the gay society is even more acute in the seniors' community. Many face discrimination in medical and social services, and on top of it all, they're less

SAGE WOMEN

Nancy Drennen

We are moving to the large dining room at the Ark – no more steps – just walking exercise, but this will keep us slim with all the round trips to and from the best buffet in town.

Also, remember, we change our meeting date to the 2nd Thursday of the month. That will be our meeting day until we outgrow the big room.

October will be the first month of the SAGE Food Drive for Broward Pantry. So, remember to bring your food just like you did before. Check for expiration dates and remember, no glass, everything else is acceptable. The entire membership of SAGE is involved in this drive. At this time, we are the only group from our community that is supporting the Pantry – so here's hoping we make a good showing, just like we did before.

Our Food Drive Will Start in October at the Lunch & Learn on Saturday the 3rd. For the men and women who do not/cannot come to the Saturday lunch, we will provide alternate pick-ups at GLCC and the Ark Restaurant on the second Wednesday and Thursday of the month so that everyone will have a chance to contribute. SAGE Food Drives will take place in October, February, June, and August. Of course, you will be reminded in the SAGE newsletter.

SAGE MEN'S SINGLES GROUP John Chandler

The mission of the monthly gathering is to introduce men who are not in a long term relationship with other men who are in the same situation. The purpose of the monthly meeting is to meet new people, promote and develop a network of friendships for support and socializing, and to provide support to those who have lost their partners because of death or the end of a relationship.

The next meeting is on Monday, October 26th. Join us for cocktails at the bar at 5:30PM. Followed by dinner at 6:30PM at Tropics. Please contact John Chandler @ 954.427.5355 or e-mail @ stonyman4u@aol.com to make your reservation, and don't forget to wear your "RED SHIRT."

ALERT! ALERT! The October meeting is a joint meeting of the singles group with any couples interested in joining them. Be sure to mark your calendar so that you don't miss out on this very popular event. Couples please call or email John as noted above.

This is a SAGE sponsored activity.

likely to have health insurance. For many gay seniors in nursing homes or assisted living situations, it's a life of neglect and fear. Many are afraid that if their sexual orientation is disclosed they will suffer undue abuse and neglect at the hands of their care givers, who may in many circumstances be homophobic and ignorant in the needs and history of gay men and women in their twilight years. They receive fewer visitors than their straight counterparts at these places and with limited connections to the lives they once lived, growing old and gay in America can be a scary and lonely trip.

We as a community must establish and nourish programs and institutions that enable and look after gay seniors. We owe this particular group of baby boomers a debt of gratitude. They pioneered the way for younger more assertive gays to reach their full potential as vibrant and viable human beings without the scourge of discrimination and fear attributed to the gay movement 30 or 40 years ago.

All is not lost, there is reason to hope and celebrate that the needs of gay seniors will be addressed in many different formats. Organizations like SAGE, the New York organization known as Service and Advocacy for LGBT Elders, are paving the way for more focus and attention to gay senior issues. More and more LGBT community centers are implementing programs to address the needs of the senior gay community. More out-reach is occurring in many major cities like San Diego (with programs like Elder Help), reaching across the sexual barriers to align themselves with other agencies that cooperatively can lead to more resources for the aging LGBT community. And one glimmer that straight society is starting to recognize this extraordinarily vibrant segment of our society is the announcement that AARP (the largest advocacy group for Americans older than 50) would sponsor a major conference focused on gay and lesbian aging for the first time. Thus allowing thousands of gay AARP members to finally feel a connection with an institution that has become synonymous with championing the rights of older Americans.

Today's gay elderly do face unique problems – but they also remember the bad old days in the closet, and many celebrate the joys of gay life in the 21st century.

SEE YOU AT THE MOVIES

Carl M. Galli & Ken Goodman

What better way to lead-off Halloween month than a story about a young man who wanted to grow up, dress in drag (winning the 2003 Sundance Special Jury Award for "Die Mommy, Die"), write plays (the 2001 Tony-nominated "Tales of the Allergist's Wife"), and all around direct, co-star, and write some of the wittiest and sometimes scabrous entertainment around ("Vampire Lesbians of Sodom"). "The Lady In Question is Charles Busch" is a witty documentary/biography of one of the theatre world's heroes, and a GLBT icon who never compromised on his way to fame and fortune.

Directed and produced by John Catania and Charles D. Ignacio, "The Lady..." is a wonderful inaugural film for our NEW HOME at the New GLCC Campus in Wilton Manors. It won the 2007 GLITTER Award for Best Documentary. And, if you want to know what the GLITER Awards are all about, ask the filmmakers -- they will be on hand to answer any and all questions!

From IMDb: "Other than having heard the title "Die Mommy, Die", I was aware of neither Charles Busch nor his work until I caught this film... This morning I saw it for the third time, and it's still excellent... it's refreshing and vindicating to see someone succeed by being true to himself and having fun. The spontaneity and talent of Busch and his troupe are impressive... This film made me a Charles Busch fan... I'm a fan of the person as much as the performer, and an admirer of his perseverance through quite a stack of obstacles and adversities..."

"The Lady in Question is Charles Busch" will screen at 7PM (our NEW TIME) at the New GLCC Campus (2040 N. Dixie Highway) in Wilton Manors on Monday, October 19th.

We will be going to Peter Pan Diner for "the bird" dinner at about 5:30PM -- so meet us there -- and afterward we'll SEE YOU at the MOVIES...

The ARK Project

CARL M. GALLI

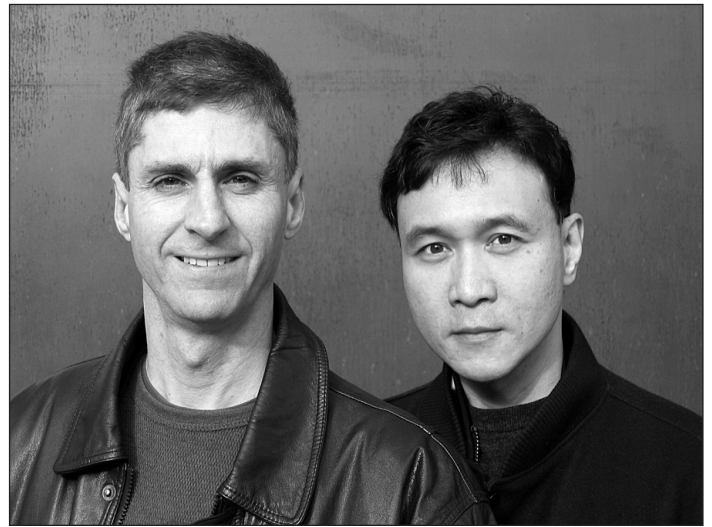

President, SAGE of South Florida

For 15 years, long-term couple and filmmakers John Catania and Charles Ignacio have been at the forefront of LGBT media. They helped establish and produce the first decade of the landmark gay and lesbian public television series, "In the Life." Among the people they've interviewed in their work are NAACP Chairman Julian Bond, musical comedy writers Betty Comden and Adolph Green, Placido Domingo, Sir Ian McKellan, Julianne Moore, Patrick Stewart, BD Wong, film director Jon Waters, internationally renowned director Francesca Zambello, and out elected officials Barney Frank, Tammy Baldwin and Berlin mayor Klaus Wowereit.

They also produced and directed two feature documentaries, "The Boys of Manchester: On the Set of Queer as Folk," and "The Lady in Question is Charles Busch," which will be screened for SAGE members on Monday, October 19th by the filmmakers.

For their next endeavor, "The ARK Project," the couple revisits an important theme that has run through most of their work: Lesbian and Gay history. With the modern gay rights movement at its 40-year mark, Charles and John recognize the importance of preserving the stories of Gays and Lesbians who came of age before Stonewall. These decades from the past mid-century saw men and women fired from their jobs, rejected by family, hospitalized, or even imprisoned just for being Gay or Lesbian. And these stories are quickly being lost.

Our community has witnessed an extraordinary half-century of change. Far from fearing arrest or being ostracized today, we now serve openly as respected elected officials, we have huge followings as the hosts of popular talk shows, and our stories have provided rich material for highly acclaimed films. And events are happening today that at one time would have seemed unthinkable — gay people born anywhere in America in 2009 will most likely have the right to marry their same-sex partner in front of their families and community.

For John and Charles, the goal of "The ARK Project" is to record and preserve the testimonies of those GLBT people who were witness to the extraordinary birth and first determined steps of the modern gay and lesbian civil rights movement. The couple chose October, "Gay and Lesbian History Month," as the perfect time to launch "The ARK Project;" and they will be conducting the first of their taped interviews right here in South Florida. These stories for posterity will eventually live on "The ARK Project" website, and a feature documentary is planned as a follow-up.

SAGE members who would like to share their story with The ARK Project, or who would simply like more information, should send an e-mail to info@2lions.net or call 201.920.2213. A brief written survey will be requested of all people wishing to be considered for "The ARK Project." Interviews will take place in Fort Lauderdale starting in October.

You can meet John and Charles on October 19th at 7:00PM at the NEW GLCC for a screening of their latest work, "The Lady in Question is Charles Busch." Read our "SEE YOU at the MOVIES" column in this issue for more information.

WEDNESDAY MEN'S DROP-IN

Ron Catena

Impressive numbers of guys continue to show up at the Men's Drop-In despite the fact that so many of our regulars are away for the summer. I guess it's the fun, casual and friendly atmosphere. Stop by! We meet every Wednesday, from 1-3PM at the GLCC.

A special thank you to Dr. David Goldberger for treating us to an assortment of snacks to be enjoyed by all. Not so good for our waistlines, but much appreciated.

Everybody's pal, Rex Coston, was treated to a birthday luncheon at "Simply Delish." The event was very well attended, and it looked like everyone had fun. It was good to see Ron Seidle, who also attended. (Ron and his partner Fred Vega are not normally here during the summer. However, Ron had a business meeting to attend and was able to schedule some time to socialize. We really enjoyed chatting with him.)

A special thanks to Joe Leonard's partner Duc, for introducing a group of Drop-In regulars to the newly opened "Basilic Vietnamese Grill." Duc helped us with menu selections. Among the diners were our dear President, Carl M. Galli; the Baron of Boynton Beach, Allen Sandler; Men's Singles' Dinner Coordinator, John Chandler; and the writer. Thanks Duc!

Julio Ajon can only be described as a great host. Showcasing his lovely new home in Oakland Park, Julio hosted scores of local notables at a recent dinner party.

Jim Anderson, our resident antique car buff, recently returned from an out of state car show that displayed antique hearses and ambulances. Jim always shares his experiences with us -- including those that don't include antique vehicles!

Greg Hernandez is moving closer to Ft. Lauderdale "to be closer to all the action." Good move Greg!

A very special thank you to Dr. Norm Peters for his continued leadership as the Men's Drop-In Facilitator. Norm is always ably assisted by his partner Bill Woodward. They were recently spotted enjoying dinner at a local Chinese restaurant with a group of Drop-In regulars.

The SAGE Board of Directors is hard at work planning a host of social events around town at some lovely venues -- all priced with an eye on our present economy. Please attend when you can.

Thanks to the SAGE Women for letting us in on a really great deal: A recent buffet luncheon at "the ARK" was very well attended, with a bountiful buffet at a reasonable price.

Finally, a very special hello to our very own bumbling Inspector Clouseau. We have our eyes on you!

Everyone, keep your eyes on your newsletters and calendars for a change in meeting place.

(Very shortly, we'll be in our new home -- meeting place at the new GLCC Campus 2040 N. Dixie Highway, Wilton Manors).

15th Anniversary Gala

SAGE Founding Members

SAGE SOCIAL NOTES

Carl M. Galli

The Co-Ed Luncheon at “the ARK” in Davie was a huge hit, coordinated by Ms. Joyce Schweitzer and Ms. Karen Ways (the manager). This was an exceptional buffet, seemingly without limits, and we highly recommend this wonderful, GLBT-friendly restaurant to all our readers. (There was an immediate clamoring for “let’s do it again” from all who came.) See, we told you the Women of SAGE were onto something since they have been meeting there monthly for over a year. Among the 35 attending were founding members John Gearrity, Lanell Harrison, Richard Hess and Norma Wingo.

A big thank you to everyone within and without SAGE for making last month’s 15th Anniversary Gala a wonderful success. Special thanks to Celso Ramos and his staff at the Marriott North Andrews; to Tony & Gloria for taking time off from their scheduled gig at Lips; and, to Mr. James Perkowski of the Ft. Lauderdale Gay Men’s Chorus for his wonderful musical introduction! And, of course, to the breathhtakingly beautiful “Ms. Krystal K” for her unique talent -- and for filling in at the last minute. (She certainly puts the “T” back in our GLBT group!) A big shout-out to Michael Albetta and his Dolphin Democrats for their support. Thanks, also, to Commander Rick Wierzbicki who participated in our event as a representative of the Broward Sheriff’s Office. And a very special Thank You to the Honorable Gary Resnick, Mayor of Wilton Manors. And to the 83 of you who attended (including founders Marc Flanagan, John Gearrity, Richard Hess, Larry McNear, Martha Present, and Bruce Todres): Bravo -- and Brava! (And, as always, thanks to our volunteers: Frank Cavanaugh, John Gearrity, Ken Moore, Barbara Sussman -- and the returning Betty Ann Priscak).

SAGE Social Committee: Sal, Joyce, Carl, and Ron

Thanks to Ms. Vicky Keller and the Rising Action Theater Company for helping SAGE raise $200 from ticket sales to “Take Me Out” -- a marvelous play -- no wonder it won the Tony! If you missed it, go!

Your Social Committee was hard at work at a recent luncheon hosted by Committee Member, Ron Catena. While eating shrimp and Caesar salad, French bread, and rainbow sherbet, Ron, Sal, Joyce, and the writer came up with “something for everyone” for the next eight months.

This month we are not just cruising (well, maybe some of the guys are...) we are having a special Oktoberfest Dinner at the Ambry, on Commercial Blvd. This is very reasonably priced, with bounties of good, old-fashioned, stick-to-your-ribs German food. And all are invited. However, the private back room only accommodates about 40 comfortably, so get your reservations in ASAP. (See the flyer in September’s issue -- and in this issue.)

Also, very special, the Movie at the NEW GLCC this month is “The Lady in the Mirror is CHARLES BUSCH” -- and the filmmakers (John Catania and Charles Ignacio) will be present for Q&A. This should be a unique, enjoyable and informative evening -- with behind-the-scenes gossip and insider facts. Plan on attending. Read “SEE YOU at the MOVIES” this issue for more information.

What’s Coming in the future? See “Save the Dates” and plan accordingly. And, as always...Enjoy!

Drinking tea may reduce stroke risk. A medical study recently found that drinking three cups a day of green or black teas -- not herbal teas -- can reduce stroke risk by 21%. Drinking six cups daily reduces the risk by 42%.

Fruit juice may lower Alzheimer's risk. People who report drinking at least three servings of juice a week are 76% less likely to develop Alzheimer's than those who drink juice less than once a week. The research is preliminary and not conclusive -- juice drinkers may lead a more healthful life in general.

Because of insurance considerations (both with SAGE and the GLCC insurers) we cannot provide 7-days of parking at the GLCC, nor can we transport anyone who is not a registered SAGE guest. Likewise, the $100 Cabin Credit and the Cocktail Party are amenities guaranteed to SAGE-registered guests. These are only for SAGE Members who booked with Eric at the SAGE Group Rate, and not for those who booked individually. Sorry! SAGE AT STONEWALL Wayne Draper

"Late in the Season" by Felice Picano
This is the story of an unlikely pair of friends: a middle-aged gay composer and an 18-year old schoolgirl. But much more than this, it is a compelling portrait of a magical time, after the Stonewall riots and before AIDs -- amazon.com.

Please note: Starting October 10th, the book club will meet at the Stonewall Library, 1300 E. Sunrise Blvd., Ft. Lauderdale, on the 2nd Saturday of the month, at 2PM.

If you have any questions, please contact me. Thank You.

SAGE MISSION STATEMENT

SAGE of South Florida is a non-profit organization for Senior Action in a Gay Environment to enrich the lives of the GLBT senior community through membership inclusive of age, gender, race, nationality and religion. We believe this can be accomplished by sponsoring social alternatives to provide personal interaction, offering educational opportunities to deal with the special needs of aging, and promoting contact with the isolated and homebound persons of our community. SAGE is also an advocate for the concerns and needs of the senior GLBT community at large, providing referral information of community resources and promoting intergenerational communication in the GLBT community.

SAGE was founded in 1994 as a Florida "not for profit" Corporation. (Federal Tax-Exempt status of 501(c)3 allowing tax-deductible donations).
