Improving the Lives of LGBT Older Adults

SAGE (USA) and the LGBT Movement Advancement Project (MAP) co-authored the report, in partnership with the American Society on Aging, the Center for American Progress, and the National Senior Citizens Law Center.

This groundbreaking report was released on March 17th at the 2010 Annual Conference of the National Council on Aging and the American Society on Aging held in Chicago. It is the first-ever collaboration between LGBT leaders and mainstream aging leaders to comprehensively study the many issues facing LGBT older adults. These issues include social stigma, isolation, and unequal treatment under the law, which in turn mean that LGBT elders are less financially secure, face serious health care disparities, and have fewer opportunities for social and community engagement.

This Forward to the Report is by

Tom Nelson, Chief Operating Officer, AARP

As America's 65+ population continues to grow in ways challenging our social and economic fabric as never before, this insightful report reveals the conditions facing America's LGBT seniors. The clear understanding of these challenges provided in Improving the Lives of LGBT Older Adults will aid policy makers striving to make sure all Americans can age successfully.

Even as our country moves closer to insisting on fair treatment and full opportunity for all of our people, the effects of long-standing discrimination against the LGBT community remind us of how far we still have to go.

Myths about LGBT persons have long been an obstacle to justice. Even as our society has overcome some damaging stereotypes, other myths linger and hold back progress. Importantly, the report notes the mistaken belief that "LGBT people are more affluent than other Americans."

In fact, a lack of financial security is the fearful reality for a large percentage of LGBT older adults. This report makes a thoughtful and nuanced contribution to the public policy dialogue through its depiction of issues involving financial security, health and health care, and social and community support. The report provides depth to a steadily growing pool of information. The special challenges facing many LGBT older adults must be kept in mind. Whether it's the problem of aging in isolation or the treatment of residents in institutionalized settings or other issues, many LGBT older adults often face special challenges. This report can help government and nonprofit organizations address some of those challenges.

From a holistic perspective, the report makes it clear that LGBT individuals and the LGBT community at-large have a major role to play in determining the degree to which policy and advocacy issues that affect LGBT older adults are given appropriate consideration. Advocacy with and on behalf of LGBT older people will make a significant difference.

While many members of AARP are members of the LGBT community, the issues raised in this report extend beyond our membership and our organization. It is not only a question of LGBT fairness—the issues raised involve the fair treatment of all Americans, and how our society will promote a secure retirement.

This report will help to inform our country as we move forward to fulfill our highest ideals, appreciate our diversity, take care of each other, and ensure that all our citizens can age with dignity and purpose.

SAGE MISSION STATEMENT

SAGE of South Florida is a non-profit organization for Senior Action in a Gay Environment to enrich the lives of the GLBT senior community through membership inclusive of age, gender, race, nationality and religion. We believe this can be accomplished by sponsoring social alternatives to provide personal interaction, offering educational opportunities to deal with the special needs of aging, and promoting contact with the isolated and homebound persons of our community. SAGE is also an advocate for the concerns and needs of the senior GLBT community at large, providing referral information of community resources and promoting intergenerational communication in the GLBT community.

SAGE was founded in 1994 as a Florida "not for profit" Corporation. (Federal Tax-Exempt status of 501(c)3 allowing tax-deductible donations).

SAGE MEN'S SINGLES GROUP

John Chandler

The mission of the monthly gathering is to introduce men who are not in a long term relationship with other men who are in the same situation. The purpose of the monthly meeting is to meet new people, promote and develop a network of friendships for support and socializing, and to provide support to those who have lost their partners because of death or the end of a relationship.

The next meeting is on Monday, May 31st. Join us for cocktails at the bar at 5:30PM. Followed by dinner at 6:30PM at Tropics. Please contact John Chandler @ 954.933.2963 or e-mail @ stonyman4u@aol.com to make a reservation, and don't forget to wear your RED Shirt!

This is a SAGE sponsored activity.

SAGE AT STONEWALL

Wayne Draper

ELEMENTS OF STYLE by Wendy Wasserstein. Tongue-in-cheek, thoroughly satirical depiction of post-9/11 New York society. Inane values, a terrorist bombing, an accidental death, and a debilitating illness compose the dark elements of the novel. Our mutual vulnerability to these situations, Wasserstein reminds readers, is beyond what money, power, and beauty can control.

We will meet on May 8, 2010 at 2PM at the Stonewall Library, 1350 E. Sunrise Blvd., Ft. Lauderdale.

Any questions, please contact me. Thank you.

WEDNESDAY MEN'S DROP-IN

Ron Catena

The conversation is always lively, so if you haven't been to the Men's Drop-In for a while you've been missing out on a couple of fun hours. Research has shown that as we get older it is very important to continue socializing. What better place to say hello to old friends and meet some new guys than at the SAGE Men's Drop-In.

Our very own facilitator, Dr. Norm Peters, PhD, who was named SAGE's Male Volunteer of the Year, was honored along with others at a lovely dinner held at the Marriott North. Among the Drop-In regulars in attendance were Philip Norris and his always smiling partner Bill Cordes; and Rex Coston who received a Certificate of Appreciation as SAGE's "official volunteer" photographer from our President, Carl M. Galli. Also attending were Joe Leonard, Richard Werner, Allan Sandler, Donn Hutchins, Joel Glass, John Irish, Bob Kaminsky, Rob Lord, Godfrey Issacs, and the writer.

In his thank you remarks, Norm spoke of his affection for the Drop-In members and his gratitude for the ever-growing attendance. He concluded with special thanks to his longtime partner Bill Woodward for his encouragement and love.

Also in attendance was Drop-In regular and Chair of the Men's Singles, John Chandler. Congratulations go out to him for breaking the 50 mark in attendance. He had been striving for this goal for a couple of years; and at a recent joint Singles/Couples dinner at Tropics he achieved it. The dinner itself was a lot of fun.

Congratulations, also, to Greg Hernandez who recently moved from the suburbs to Ft. Lauderdale to be closer to all the action. He hosted a combination open house and birthday party to celebrate. And a good time was had by all.

Don't sit home! Check your SAGE Newsletter for a host of upcoming events from lunches to dinners to theater performances and movies. There is something for everyone.

And don't forget: the Men's Drop-In meets every Wednesday from 1PM to 3PM at the GLCC/Pride Center on Dixie. Stop by!

SEE YOU AT THE MOVIES

Carl M. Galli & Ken Goodman

This month's film is a Special Presentation which SAGE, in partnership with the GLCC/Pride Center, is sponsoring as a Community Service.

We are proud to present the HBO documentary "Ruthie and Connie: Every Room in the House." Directed by Deborah Dickson, this multiple-award-winning film tells the story of Ruthie Berman and Connie Kurtz who found one another after years of straight marriage. These extraordinary Lesbians were among the forerunners of modern day LGBT activism. They are witty and fun -and highly opinionated. And they will be in attendance for questions and answers after the film.

From IMDb.com: "It is actually very good. Ruthie and Connie are two older women who have found love at a relatively late age; they were neighbors in NYC, and already had grandchildren when their relationship developed.

We see them in NY, with groups of friends, and also visiting their community in Florida. Their tenderness and concern for each other is moving, and at times humorous. It is positive to see their love and regard for each other, even with resistance of their own children....

This is just a telling story about two women and brings something positive to the table for discussion. This is highly recommended; it is a positive, life-affirming story well worth seeing."

Please see the flyer in this issue for details, and plan on attending this special presentation, at its special time: 6PM on Monday, May 17th, at the GLCC/Pride Center's Main Hall.

(Light refreshments, compliments of the GLCC, will be served.)

SOCIAL NOTES

Sal Orlando

Hello to all our members. I am your new social chair this year. Although I have big shoes to fill, following our beloved President and my dear friend, Carl M. Galli. I trust that I will bring, together with Social Committee Member, John Chandler, interesting and enjoyable venues, some wonderful excursions, and maybe a cruise next year. Anyone who has any comments or suggestions don't hesitate to email me at sorlan8@aol.com. Last month, congratulations go to Carl for a job well done on coordinating a fabulous luncheon at Art and Design Cafe on Commercial Blvd. The place looked like a museum. Your eyes didn't know where to look first with lovely and unusual art work, fabulous decor -and all was for sale.

This month we go to Tedesco's Italian Restaurant (see flyer in this issue) for a delicious Italian dinner, served with red or white wine, which will be included in the SAGE price of only $23.00 for members and $28.00 for non members.

Also, this month, SAGE (in partnership with the GLCC/Pride Center) will be hosting Ruthie Berman and Connie Kurtz when we present the HBO film "Ruthie and Connie: Every Room in the House," the story of their relationship and struggle for equality. This will be free and open to the community, so please invite your friends. (See flyer in this issue.)

Next Month, SAGE goes to Sage French Restaurant (see flyer in this issue), a long awaited event, located in Ft. Lauderdale, on Federal Hwy. in the Winn-Dixie Shopping Center. I had the pleasure of eating lunch there a few weeks ago. Both the food and atmosphere are simply wonderful and so very French, oolala!

Looking forward to seeing all of you at our upcoming events.

Ciao for now...
