SAGE MISSION STATEMENT

SAGE of South Florida is a non-profit organization for Senior Action in a Gay Environment to enrich the lives of the GLBT senior community through membership inclusive of age, gender, race, nationality and religion. We believe this can be accomplished by sponsoring social alternatives to provide personal interaction, offering educational opportunities to deal with the special needs of aging, and promoting contact with the isolated and homebound persons of our community. SAGE is also an advocate for the concerns and needs of the senior GLBT community at large, providing referral information of community resources and promoting intergenerational communication in the GLBT community.

SAGE was founded in 1994 as a Florida "not for profit" Corporation. (Federal Tax-Exempt status of 501(c)3 allowing tax-deductible donations).

We discuss various topics concerning the personal computer, including the Web, E-Mail, setting up your computer, personalizing the computer, Office software, multimedia software, use of Smart Phones, operating system utilities and maintenance software, security, etc. Recently we have talked about free software available to replace expensive computer software and we will be exploring the use of Office Software such as a Word Processor and Spreadsheet. We discuss the windows operating systems (XP, Vista and Windows 7) and the Apple OS/X operating systems.

The meeting is made up of two parts. Part one is a discussion of a specific topic of interest to the group. Part two is allocated to resolve any issues and answer questions you may have.

The cost of mailing the SAGE newsletter is getting more and more expensive, especially with the content and postal rates increasing. Did you know that you can receive the SAGE newsletter using your internet connection? By doing this you can help cut costs by about $2.00 an issue. You can get more information on receiving the newsletter electronically at the Computer Club meeting. SENIOR ACTION IN A GAY ENVIRONMENT

SEE YOU AT THE MOVIES

with John Gearrity and Carl M. Galli

Our February 21st movie is Better than Chocolate. Called a “Lesbian Midsummer Night’s Dream” by some, this film was an independent Canadian hit when it was released. It was nominated for the 1999 GLADD Media Award for Outstanding Film in Limited Release.

Two attractive young women, Maggie (Karyn Dwyer) and Kim (Christina Cox), meet in Vancouver, develop a passionate romance, and move in together. Meanwhile, Maggie’s well-meaning but naive mother Lila (Wendy Crewson) gets divorced and decides to move to Vancouver and join the household. Soon after, Lila is befriended by Judy (Peter Outerbridge), a pre-op transsexual about to undergo the operation. Complications ensue as the conservative Lila learns the truth about Maggie, Kim, Judy, and their diverse group of friends.

Directed by Anne Wheeler (who won the 1999 Toronto Inside Out Audience Award for Best Feature), from a screenplay by Peggy Thompson, Better than Chocolate is a comedy/drama that will leave you wanting more.

From IMDb.com: It’s a fairy tale: “it helps us forget...our daily troubles and allows us to dream and to bathe in romantic feelings. And these are exactly the reasons I recommend Better than Chocolate and think that it’s a splendid movie, a hilarious comedy and a love story so sweet you just get enchanted by it...the cast is simply brilliant...”

Rated R for pervasive strong sexual content, nudity and language, the film runs 101 minutes.

It screens at 4PM, on Monday, February 21, at the Pride Center.

Honoring our diverse family of residents and caregivers

When we began our relationship thirty-three years ago, we never thought of our lives together coming to this. Like many other families, Alzheimer’s changed everything. I left the workforce to be Steve’s full-time caregiver but his daily needs became more than I could provide all day, every day. It was very important to find a good, caring home for Steve.

After researching and visiting numerous facilities and homes between Kansas and Florida, a friend recommended The Cottages of Greenacres. When we visited, we found a wonderful place filled with loving and caring staff. We knew our search was over – we found the best place for Steve!

*Looking back, it seems like a small sacrifice to move from Kansas to Florida so that Steve could live at The Cottages. They provide their residents with around the clock care, delicious meals, medication monitoring, and many enjoyable activities. The secured grounds where residents may walk or sit at their leisure, events that include family members, a support group, and many other services designed to meet the needs of the residents and their caregivers sets The Cottages apart. Although it is painful living without Steve in our life long home in Kansas, it is comforting to know he is very safe, comfortable and happy at The Cottages. TESTIMONIAL—CLIFF

SOCIAL NOTES

Sal Orlando

My, how time flies! It feels like only yesterday we were all getting ready for the holidays.

This past month, unfortunately, we had to cancel our much-anticipated excursion to St. Augustine due to low response.

The Great White Way, presented by Chuck Prentiss on January 9th, and sponsored by SAGE and the Pride Center was a raving success. Broadway was never “naughtier, gaudier or bawdier!!!”

Saturday, January 22nd, at SAGE’s Annual Picnic, was fabulous. The food was delicious and the caterers did a great job of keeping us well fed and happy.

On Sunday, January 30th at 2PM, SAGE goes to see Les Miserables at the Broward Center.

Don’t forget that on Sunday, February 13th, SAGE celebrates Valentine’s Day at Primavera Restaurant. If it’s anything like last year, it promises to be a gala event, especially with Little Stevie as our entertainer.

Wednesday, February 23rd at 2PM, we all gather for West Side Story at the Broward Center.

And last, but not least, remember Sunday, March 27th at 2PM, when SAGE holds its Annual Meeting at the Marriott North Andrews. Be there or be square!

Looking forward to seeing all of you at our coming events.

Ciao for now.

Occasional Thoughts

Carol Youngblood

Someone was talking about the old rule in New York where women had to be wearing at least three articles of women's clothing or else they got arrested and held overnight. (With my hips that would never have been a problem; there's no way I can fit my body into men's clothes.)

So I started thinking about the butch-fem thing. When I came out in 1949, most relationships (not all) were like this. It has been my observation that most relationships have been and still are like this. Even the one in The Kids Are All Right is. (You can't always tell by looking, of course. I'm so butch looking that even gay people can't tell I'm gay.)

But there are exceptions. During the women's lib era in the 70's, it was politically incorrect to admit to any roles. I loved the diesel dykes assuring us that there were no roles in their relationships. (One researcher I knew then said she looked to see who drove. I failed that one too. Midge drove.)

That viewpoint continues to prevail from time to time. Because I don't have Showtime or Logo or any of those other gay TV channels, and because I run around with middle-aged and old people, I have no idea of gay fashion, in clothes or in relationships.

Well, as I was wondering to myself whether the larger gay community still admits to butches, I found out that we're alive and well. We're even having a convention! It's called Butch Voices.LA. According to SHE magazine, "Butch Voices is a grassroots organization dedicated to all self-identified Butches, Studs, Aggressives..."

I don't know what an Aggressive is -- sounds sort of like someone with control issues. However, I like that self-identified bit. I am starting a new life. After 62 years as an inept butch, I have decided to become a STUD.

SEEKING INVESTOR FOR GAY COMEDY FILM TO BE SHOT IN FORT LAUDERDALE

Excellent Terms! 50% Ownership!
Rapid Return On Initial Investment!
Plus Very High Profit Potential!

Nationally known, award winning TV & film writer, producer, director, published author of several comedy and business books, and a recognized public relations and marketing executive, seeks financial investor for "low budget" gay comedy film. The screenplay is legally copyrighted and registered with The Writers Guild of America.

The script has been successfully test-marketed and read by several leading TV & film acquisition executives who deemed it "hilariously funny," and "a potential moneymaker" in movie theater ticket sales, direct-to-consumer DVD sales, retail sales and rentals, licensing to top rated cable TV stations (i.e. Comedy Central, Showtime, HBO), and a possible PART 2 sequel film. It was also described as "a John Waters type film that could become a cult classic."

Although gay themed, the movie has both gay and straight characters, and will have mass market appeal, catering to those in the age range of 18-55.

Serious inquiries only please! Call Steve at (954) 463-2777 for more complete information, including sales, publicity and marketing plans, detailed budget, production schedules, investor rights and incentives, and a copy of the script.
