Leading Aging Organizations Release Recommendations on the Older Americans Act

from SAGE Wire Services

The Leadership Council of Aging Organizations (LCAO), a 65-member association comprising the country's leading aging organizations, released its official "Consensus Recommendations for the 2011 Older Americans Act Reauthorization," which includes eight recommendations specific to lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender (LGBT) elders, as well as racially and ethnically diverse elders, and older adults with HIV/AIDS.

Scheduled for reauthorization this year, the Older Americans Act (OAA) is considered the country's leading vehicle for funding and delivering supportive services to seniors nationwide. The consensus document, adopted April 6 by LCAO, serves as LCAO's official guide for policy-makers on OAA reauthorization.

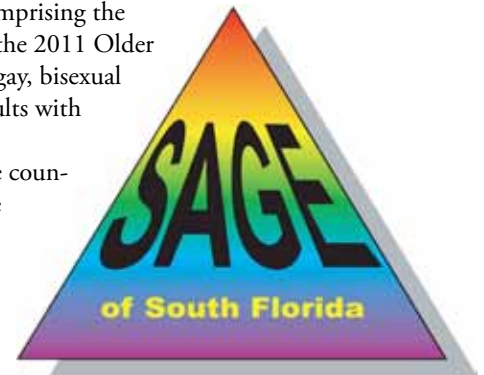

"We are thrilled that the Leadership Council of Aging Organizations, and leaders representing our country's most important aging organizations, are placing their consensus and support behind an Older Americans Act that acknowledges the unique needs of millions of lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender elders nationwide," said Michael Adams, executive director of SAGE (US) -- the only LGBT organization on the LCAO.

LGBT and Diverse Elder Recommendations from the LCAO consensus document on OAA:

- Where possible in the OAA, lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender older adults should be included as a vulnerable population with greatest social need as a result of a lifetime of bigotry, stigma and discrimination.
- The definitions of "minority" status and "greatest social need" in the OAA should explicitly name racial minority groups and lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender older adults.
- The definitions of "greatest social need" in the OAA should explicitly name older adults living with HIV—recognizing the growing number of older adults living with HIV and the related health disparities, discrimination and stigma.
- The under-served, vulnerable communities of all racial and ethnic groups, as well as, lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender older adults should be explicitly addressed in the OAA in ways that account for their unique family structures and collective experiences. Terms such as "adult care," "family," "family caregiver," "spouse," "under-served area," "vulnerable elder," and "family violence" should be defined to account for the variety of family and care structures of all racial and ethnic communities, and LGBT communities, which include partners and families of choice, as well as spouses and biological families.

- Where appropriate and practical in the OAA, data collection, project assessments and reporting requirements should ensure that racial groups, as well as lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender older adults, are studied and appropriately served.
- The OAA should amend and include provisions that promote cultural and linguistic competence for all racial and ethnic groups, as well as lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender older adults.
- Aging resource centers delineated in the OAA should explicitly address all racial and ethnic groups as well as lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender older adults.
- In provisions that refer to other minority resource centers, the OAA should include and list the National Resource Center on LGBT Aging.

SAGE MISSION STATEMENT

SAGE of South Florida is a non-profit organization for Senior Action in a Gay Environment to enrich the lives of the GLBT senior community through membership inclusive of age, gender, race, nationality and religion. We believe this can be accomplished by sponsoring social alternatives to provide personal interaction, offering educational opportunities to deal with the special needs of aging, and promoting contact with the isolated and homebound persons of our community. SAGE is also an advocate for the concerns and needs of the senior GLBT community at large, providing referral information of community resources and promoting intergenerational communication in the GLBT community.

SAGE was founded in 1994 as a Florida "not for profit" Corporation. (Federal Tax-Exempt status of 501(c)3 allowing tax-deductible donations).

SEE YOU AT THE MOVIES

with John Gearrity and Carl M. Galli

The SAGE movie for July will be The Opposite Sex and will be shown on Monday, July 18th at 4 pm at The Pride Center and will be followed by an agreed upon restaurant for dinner.

The Opposite Sex is a well-heeled 1956 remake of the 1939 play and movie The Women. Both had been extremely successful and the film remains a classic until this day. This version doesn't top the original movie version, but an all-star cast does well with the acid-dipped lines, not to mention the big production numbers.

The movie was directed by George Cukor.

The fabulous '50's couture is in Cinemascope and yes, the great "JUNGLE-RED" line is included.

The cast includes June Allyson, Joan Collins, Dolores Gray, Ann Sheridan (Yes!) Ann Miller, Agnes Moorehead and Charlotte Greenwood.

The cast also includes some minor male roles not part of the original productions. In fact, the original productions contained no males at all.

All in all, it's a fun time. If you would like to see the original film at a future date, let us know.

ENJOY!

It will be a sultry and balmy evening in Paris on July 13th. So come with us to a Parisian Café, that night to celebrate the Fall of the Bastille, for a cool and extraordinary dining and musical experience. We are going to 33rd and Dine the fabulous crêperie and French bistro in Ft. Lauderdale Beach. Hosts, Emmanuel and Nadia, have prepared an exceptional SAGE menu, including a special vegetarian dish, and desserts to die for. They are also presenting Parisian chanteuse, Florence, who will perform jazz-tinged romantic songs in English, French and Spanish for your listening and dancing pleasure. The festivities will begin about 6PM, with food service to start about (remember we are on French time) 7PM. 33rd and Dine is located at 3330 NE 33rd Street, Ft. Lauderdale FL – just down the block from Dudes and almost at A1A. There is plenty of free parking at meters after 6PM. However, as those of you who have dined there before know, it is a very intimate restaurant, and we have to limit reservations. First come, first served. So get your slips in now.

Next month we go on an entirely different culinary adventure when we dine at El Tamarindo on State Road 84. For exceptional Latin American cuisine come join us.

Please Note: The pre-booking by SAGE of the Broward Center's "Broadway Series" is SOLD-OUT. As of June 22nd, we will no longer be accepting pre-booking reservations. However, if you would like to be put on a mailing list, for possible future, as yet, unreleased seats, please call the SAGE office with your

Occasional Thoughts

Bruce Williams

My recent physical ailments have begun to make me feel like the poster-boy for Geezer-Of-The-Year! Although I've worked in health care for over thirty years, I find myself unprepared...or unwilling to deal with my own advancing age. I'm caught in a never-ending battle between dwindling health and behavioral changes. The things my folks did that irritated me the most are now integral parts of my everyday character...but with a generation worth of WORSE. This is my first time being old, none of us have been longevity enhanced before and no one has written an "Aging For Dummies"! Dr. Phil calms our conflicts, Dr. Oz nudges our nutrition and Dr. Ruth fosters our fornication but no one explains it all. Dr. Spock wrote about babies in diapers...not adults! We need someone who can combine all of that to help our aging Boomer Generation. We need a Dr Phruthozpock. But since this all-encompassing guru doesn't exist, my next best resource has been the SAGE Drop-In -- a welcoming forum that encourages the sharing of thoughts, activities, problems and solutions. Although we each age in a very unique manner, The Drop-In has shown that we share many of the same problems and fortunately many of the same solutions. The weekly exchange is supportive, informative and comforting while generally providing a good dose of laughter -- the proverbial best medicine! During the past two years I have accumulated a wealth of information that has helped me to deal with, solve and actually enjoy some of the challenges that my advancing age presents.

For example, I recently met with a representative from a local funeral parlor to make plans for my own cremation. I explained that I wanted "the bare -bones package," I snickered and added... "pun intended!" My salesperson, totally un-amused, handed me a price sheet for the least expensive package which included the option of buying a body-container from them...for pre-cremation purposes...or providing my own. I asked if a Hefty Trash Bag would suffice and was icily told that it 'haad' to be made of cardboard. I quickly offered to bring in an old refrigerator box from Sears, but the salesman refused and offered to sell me a container for $250. My agreeing to that bolstered his sales confidence so much that he then offered to include a pillow and blanket for an additional $150. When I asked if a pillow and blanket would really keep warm while being cremated at more than 1600 degrees Fahrenheit, he sighed, rolled his eyes and excused himself to use the men's room. Fortunately, shared experiences from several Drop-In Sessions, some internet research and my not being in an emotionally charged state combined in sort of a Dr. Phruthozpock experience that gave me equal footing with a salesperson whose interests were not necessarily the same as my own. When he returned I explained that now I was in need of the restroom. Glancing back as I was about to leave the room, I smiled at him, thought "over my dead body" (pun intended) and bolted out the back door!
